Thursday evening by a very unique parby which was given in their honor at the Evans home. Each guest represented some piece of music, and were presented a dainty program of blue or red, upon the outside of which were artistically or two bars of music. Inside numbers to the extent of the guests and a blank Bernice Evans represented "Sweet and Stamper Oliver, Roland Murdock, Ray-Fugar was attached to a ribbon which ting and Walter Hess. encircled her neck and hung as low as her waist. Miss Maxwell, who has beautiful flowing locks, wore her hair joose and as the mass of hair floated about her shoulders the question was Tuesday evening last. Much merriment accompanied the solv- and s of the college the most delightful ing of the various representations, after which came the second part of the program which was the guessing from snort snatches played upon the piano of the ing o ffruits, cakes, sandwiches, salads, title of selections of music. Miss Maxwell presided at the plane, and this proved quite entertaining as part one of the program. Miss Larimer favored the company with several vocal selections which were rendered in her usual excellent style, and were not the least enjoy. able feature of the evening. Refrigeratrefreshments were served.

The reception by the Misses Evans on Tining day evening was highly successful. The arrangements were complete The girls, including the assistants-Misses Mabel Larimer, Helen Carpenter Mary Garver, Lizzie Roach, Jennie Case and Jessie Allen-wore Augustents to set off the beautiful decorations, where flowers, evergreens and the perfume of roses enade the scene fairy-like. This was a summer scene, where living handsomely dressed forms and fair features moved among the plant life, while music made the whole blend into one, the living that moved, the living that moved There were gowns of organdy, of blue, of various tints. There were ribhone and laces, but best of all there were

> TROLLEY PARTY TUESDAY EVE. One of the most enjoyable trolley parties of the season was the one indulged in by the residents of College Hill, one of Wichita's most delightful suburbs, on waiting at 5 p. m. to carry them out to Fairmount, where on the spacious verbreeze floated, and when, thanks to the ladies, a most bountiful table was spread, tempting to the appetites of all, consistmeats and lemonade, to which all did justice. The night was one especially ordered for the occasion, and the weather clerk filled the order with a precision that was most gratifying to all. The return trip was made about 9:30, when the night air rang out with the merry laughter and song along the entire route. The participants of this not soon to be forgotten occasion were: Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Fleming, Colonel and Mrs. W. B. Fouts, Mr and Mrs. J. C. Rutan, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. J. MR. EDWARDS SURPRISED. Mr. Howard Edwards had a birthday last Tuesday and in honor of the same a But surprise party was planned. The secret was kept most excellently, as Mr. Edwards' face, when the party arrived, strongly testified. Logormachy and cooling refreshments were the feature of the evening. Present were: Rev. and Mrs. Bradt, Misses Helen and Flora Carpenter, Maud Matthews, Clara Thomson,

MISSIONARY LEAGUE MEETING. The regular monthly meeting of the Young Ladies Missionary League was Dorsey, Nellie Haythorne, Agnes David- held yesterday afternoon at the home of son, Della Haine, Calla Durley, Della Misses Abble and Emma Potts, on North Gertie Freshman. Ola Kinkaid, Grace leader for the day, and some interesting papers were read. "Mission Presses"

I appeal to your honor, that jewel of life The Father has left in your keeping; papers were read. "Mission Presses" was the foreign subject for discussion, Edna Hart, Lola Maxwell, Nellie Jack- and the first paper under this head was read by Mrs. Harry McClung, which was followed by discussion in sub-topics by Misses Calla Durley and Mamie McCoy. A paper on the home topic "Results of the Year," was read by Miss Mamie Lewis, and the program, as a whole, was considered most interesting and inspiring by all members present.

To receive each the sentence of sorrow of joy. For the deeds we have done in our youth. O, then let me say:

"She cheered him, she helped him On life's weary way:

Dear Father, her love saved my boy."

MRS. M'BEE AND HER PARAMOUR ARRESTED IN HUTCRINSON.

Runaways Yesterday Afternoon at cors Came After Them-He was Caugh by an Assistant of the Marshals-Mr. McBes Left for Hutchinson as Foon a He Heard They Were Located.

Mrs. T. E. McRee and Albert Hobeck. her paramour, who eloped to Hutchin son on Friday evening, were arrested by the city marshal of Hutchinson ves terday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Mc-Bee and his brother-in-law left for Hatchinson last evening over the Missouri Pacific. It is thought they went to get the baby which Mrs. McBee took away with her.

Mr. McBee was unable to get either telegraphic or telephone communication with Hutchinson on Friday but early yesterday morning he kept the wires hot giving a description of the runaways and trying to locate them.

When the marshal found where Hobeck and Mrs. McBee were stopping he started up stairs to arrest them. While he went in the door Hobeck jumped out of a second story window, trying to get away. He didn't care for Mrs. McBee then and left her to hold tne baby and take the consequences. One of the marshal's assistants was on hand though and welcomed him with open arms as soon as he hit the ground. They were taken to the county jall and locked up. Constable Tom Voss left last night for Hutchinson to bring them back to this city. County Attorney Amidon late last evening brought criminal sulf against them in Judge Enoch's court, making four specific charges which are rare and racy. They will arrive in the city this morning and will be taken to the county fail and there incarcerated. It was learned yesterday that Mrs

McBee had sold a cow to some party in town for $25, getting $15 in cash and a promise of the balance on the first of August. It is supposed that this $15 was used to defray the expenses of the trip for her and Hobeck. Hobeck and Mrs. McBee by arrangement met at the Keystone notel at 3 o'clock on Friday and walked east on Second street to the bridge where they stayed until it was time for thetrain to leave. They will be given a hearing some day the latter part
